

[Naomi and I]

What I discovered...

I ate kangaroo sausages and I discovered a lot of typical food during the stay, like banana bread or sausages with cheese inside for breakfast. Australians eat seven times a day : breakfast, morning tea, lunch, afternoon tea, 2nd afternoon tea and diner.

I also saw animals when I went to the zoo : kangaroos which I fed, ostriches, crocodiles, exotic birds and opossums on the house's roof.

The Thomas' house had a forest for garden and it was so beautiful, there were a lot of crows.

Above all, I improved my English thanks to school, Game of thrones' episodes which I watched in original version with Naomi.

"Sacré-Coeur" in Australia was so big and modern with swimming pool and tennis court ! But students have to wear uniform, have to tie their hair, learn music and sing. They can learn cooking and sewing. They learn Japanese mostly.

According to Naomi, they "have to be Lady."

What I did...

- First time, I ate, ALL day long ! Seven meals a day, it's something ! There were many sushi train and yoghurt shop. But once I could choose the restaurant, I brought Thomas' family to a French restaurant because I missed French cook. The family really loved « vacherin ».
- Then, I climbed the Sydney brige because I was in the capital for 4 days. I also visited the capital and saw the Opera House ! I even saw a wedding on a boat and in a natural park. It was like a dream ! So romantic under the beautiful sun !
- I went to Moreton Island for one week, and it was great ! I practised paddle, hiking, swimming on the really warm sea, I also went for shopping. We stayed in a wonderful hotel where we had a lot of fun in the swimming pool and we ate ice cream every evening.
- I took the riverboat on the Brisbane river, and I saw many beautiful houses which look as if they were out of movie on the coast.
- I practised ropes in trees above a zoo with snakes and others animals.
- I went to a school for girls but I didn't have to wear the uniform. I tried to follow and understand the lesson, I really liked English equivalent to French here of course !

Be careful !

- When there are three chilli next to a name of a meal in restaurant, that 'sSPICY, not like in France !
- There are shark on the sea, even near the beach ! It's not a joke !
- Spiders ans snakes are dangerous !
- If you don't want to be late, take the lead because red lights are so slow !
